RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAGISTRATE JUDGE

I. INTRODUCTION

This 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action is pending before the court on a complaint filed by Daniel Wilson, a state inmate currently incarcerated at the Limestone Correctional Facility. In the instant complaint, Wilson challenges the constitutionality of the conditions at the Limestone Correctional Facility. Doc. 1 at pp. 2-3. Wilson names Captain Mckenzie, Officer Odom, Sgt. Parker, Cadet Garcia and Officer Hughes. Doc. 1 at p. 2. He seeks monetary damages and injunctive relief. Doc. 1 at p. 4.

Upon review of the complaint and in light of the claims presented therein, the undersigned finds that this case should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a).¹

¹Upon initiation of this civil action, Wilson filed an application for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. Doc. 2. However, under the circumstances of this case, the court finds that a ruling on such application, including assessment and collection of any filing fee, should be undertaken by the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama.

II. DISCUSSION

A 42 U.S.C. § 1983 “action may be brought in – (1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located; (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred . . .; or (3) if there is no district in which an action may otherwise be brought as provided in this section, any judicial district in which any defendant is subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction with respect to such action.” 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). However, the law further provides that “[f]or the convenience of parties and witnesses, in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district . . . where it might have been brought[.]” 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a).

Limestone Correctional Facility is located in Limestone County, Alabama and is within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Thus, the actions made the basis of the instant complaint occurred in the Northern District of Alabama. It likewise appears from the complaint that the individuals named as defendants reside in the Northern District of Alabama. As such, the majority of witnesses and evidence associated with the claims raised in this case reside or are located in the Northern District of Alabama.

In light of the foregoing and in accordance with applicable federal law, the undersigned concludes that in the interest of justice this case should be transferred to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama for review and disposition.²

III. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, it is the Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge that this case be TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama in accordance with the directives of 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a).

On or before November 15, 2021, the parties may file objections to this Recommendation. R. 3-1; see Resolution Trust Co. v. Hallmark Builders, Inc., 996 F.2d 1144, 1149 (11th Cir. 1993) (“When the magistrate provides such notice and a party still fails to object to the findings of fact [and law] and those findings are adopted by the district court the party may not challenge them on appeal in the absence of plain error or manifest injustice.”); Henley v. Johnson, 885 F.2d 790, 794 (11th Cir. 1989).

²In transferring this case, the court makes no determination with respect to the merits of the claims presented in the complaint.
